DETAILED RULES RELATING TO STATEMENT PREPARATION

- a) Every word no matter how small e.g. "I", "or", "and", "the" etc will be counted as one word.
- b) Numbers in a block will be treated as one word e.g. "1989", "1/128", "1988/89" and "1988/1989."
- c) Any acronyms or groups of initials will be treated as one word. For example NHS would count as one word. If, however, full titles for acronyms or groups of words are used then they will count as separate words. For example National Health Service will count as three words.
- d) Compound words or hyphenated words will be treated as one word.
- e) All biographical details will be printed using a common typeface and type size font.
- f) Selected words or sentences can be emboldened, capitalised, underlined or placed in italics. Entire election addresses submitted in any of these formats will, however, be reproduced in the common typeface and type size font detailed in Paragraph (e) above.
- g) The use of bullet points and numbering to make separate points is allowed and these will not be counted as words.
- h) Words or phrases can be centered or indented. Boxes around particular words or phrases will not, however, be reproduced.
- i) Your statement may be up to one hundred words in length (subject to the definitions given above in points a-d inclusive) Any part of the statement exceeding that one hundred word limit shall not be reproduced, and the wording 'statement cut at word count' will be inserted at the end of the statement.
- j) In the interests of fairness, your statement will be reproduced exactly as it has been submitted. This means any grammatical or spelling errors will not be corrected. Please check it carefully before you submit it.
- k) It would help the Returning Officer if you could ensure that any handwriting is legible. The Returning Officer will not seek clarification of any illegible words and will make a best considered judgment of the same for reproduction in any documents sent to voters.
- l) The Returning Officer will take care to reproduce your elections statement exactly as you submit it, however, inaccurate reproduction of your election statement will not invalidate the election process nor require the Returning Officer to reprint and recirculate statements. For this reason, you are strongly recommended you send your election statement by email as a word document.
- m) Election statements will be produced in sentence case so the Returning Officer will also make a best judgment as to how to reproduce election statements that are submitted written in upper case.
