AMENDED FEBRUARY 2014

THE COMPANIES ACT 2006
A COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE
AND NOT HAVING A SHARE CAPITAL

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

of

THE ASSOCIATION OF ELECTORAL ADMINISTRATORS

INTERPRETATION

1. In these Articles:-

"the Act" means the Companies Act 2006 including any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force

"the Articles" means the Articles of Association of the Association

"the Association" means the above named Association

"Branch" means a branch of the Association established pursuant to Article 25

"the Board" means the Board for the time being of the Association

"Clear Days" in relation to the period of a notice means the period excluding the day when the notice is given or deemed to be given and the day for which it is given or on which it is to take effect

"Executed" includes any mode of execution

"the Memorandum" means the Memorandum of Association of the Association

"Office" means the registered office of the Association

"the Seal" means the common seal of the Association

"Secretary" means the Executive Director (Resources) or any other person appointed by the Directors to undertake the duties of the secretary prescribed in these Articles or by virtue of section 270 of the Act

"the United Kingdom" means Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in the regulations bears the same meaning as in the Act. Except as explicitly stated, the expression "Member" shall, unless repugnant to the context, include all classes of membership.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number and vice-versa.

Words importing the masculine shall include the feminine and neuter and vice-versa.

Words which appear in the Memorandum shall, unless the context requires otherwise have the same meaning as in the Articles and vice-versa.

The headings to the clauses and paragraphs are inserted for ease of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation or construction of the Articles.

2. MEMBERS

- 2.1. The subscribers to the Memorandum and such other persons as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles shall be members of the Association. No person shall be admitted as a member of the Association unless his application is approved by the Executive Director (Resources) or, on appeal, by the Board. Every person who wishes to become a member shall deliver to the Association an application for membership in such form as the Board may require executed by him.
 - 2.2. An appeal against the rejection of an application for membership may be made to an Annual General Meeting which may, by a simple majority of those present and voting, resolve to affirm or reject the Board's decision.
3. There shall be five classes of membership:
- 3.1. Full Member: Full membership shall be available to any person who is employed by a local authority in the United Kingdom or a Valuation Joint Board in Scotland, whose work involves the organisation for and/or conduct of elections and/or electoral registration or who is the Chief Electoral Officer for Northern Ireland and any person who is employed by, or acts for, the Chief Electoral Officer for Northern Ireland. This class of membership is also available to persons employed by the Association who have not been awarded honorary membership.
 - 3.2. Honorary Member: Honorary membership may be bestowed by the Association at an Annual General Meeting upon any person who is, or has been involved in the work of the Association or has been involved in the organisation for and/or conduct of elections, electoral registration or related fields.
 - 3.3. Past Service Member: Past service membership shall be available to any person who has retired from full or part time employment and has formerly been a full member of the Association. This class of membership shall not be available to any person who is employed in any manner other than by the Association to undertake work within the field of electoral administration.
 - 3.4. Affiliate Member: Affiliate membership shall be available to any person interested in the organisation for and/or conduct of elections and/or electoral registration and related matters for whom no other class of membership is available and who has no connection to an organisation with a commercial interest in the field of electoral administration. Honorary members will retain their honorary status within this class.
 - 3.5. Corporate Member: Corporate membership shall be available to any person who is employed by a commercial organisation that has a commercial interest in the field of electoral administration. Honorary members will retain their honorary status within this class.
4. A member may at any time withdraw from the Association by giving notice in writing to the Association. Membership shall not be transferable and shall cease on death.
 5. The Board may from time to time formulate and draw up and thereafter amend or otherwise alter rules relating to any subscription which members shall be required to pay to the Association as a condition of membership or of continuing membership of the Association and such rules may provide for the expulsion of a member from the Association and for deletion of a member's name from the Register of Members in the event of a member making default in the payment of any such subscription or for other reasons as may be determined from time to time by the Directors.

GENERAL MEETINGS

6. The Association shall hold a General Meeting in every calendar year as its Annual General Meeting at such time and place as may be determined by the Board and shall specify the meeting as such in notices calling it, provided that every Annual General Meeting except the first shall be held not more than fifteen months after the holding of the preceding Annual General Meeting and that so long as the Association holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months after its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year.
7. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
8. The Board may call General Meetings and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after the receipt of the requisition.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

9. An Annual General Meeting and an Extraordinary General Meeting called for the passing of a special resolution or a resolution appointing a person as a member of the Board shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other Extraordinary General Meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice but a General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:-
 - 9.1. in the case of an Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - 9.2. in the case of any other meeting by a majority in the number of the members having a right to attend and vote being a majority together holding not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the members.

The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of an Annual General Meeting, shall specify the meeting as such. The notice shall be placed on the Association's website and the Association shall ensure that all members and the Association's accountants are notified by email that the notice has been published.

10. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice to a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

11. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. Five per cent of those entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted shall be a quorum.
12. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall also be deemed special, with the exception of the consideration of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet, the reports of the Officers (as detailed in Article 26) and the report on the election of the Deputy Chairman.

13. If, within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to such time and place as the Board may appoint, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall be the quorum.
14. The Chairman shall preside at all General Meetings of the Association (unless required to vacate the chair on account of the nature of the business under discussion). In his absence, or if he declines to take the chair the meeting shall choose one of its number to take the chair.
15. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, (and shall, if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might have been transacted at the meeting at which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjournment shall be given in the same manner as for the original meeting. Save as aforesaid, members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
16. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, a show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:-
 - 16.1. by the Chairman; or
 - 16.2. by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting.
17. Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the vote recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
18. The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
19. A poll shall be taken as the Chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers from members present. The result of the poll shall be declared at the meeting. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
20. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
21. A poll demanded on any question shall be taken forthwith. Subject to Article 23, on a show of hands every member who is present in person shall have one vote and, on a poll, every member present in person by proxy shall have one vote.

PROXY NOTICES

- 22A. - (1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which-
 - a) states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;

- b) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the General Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - c) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - d) is delivered to the Association in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the General Meeting to which they relate.
- (2) The Association may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.
- (3) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise; it must be treated as-
- a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
 - b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

22B. - The notice appointing a proxy may –

- a) be deposited at the office or at such place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of proxy sent out by the company in relation to the meeting not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the notice proposes to vote; or
- b) in the case of a poll taken more than forty-eight hours after it is demanded, be deposited as provided in sub-clause a) above after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or
- c) where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty-eight hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman or to any director; and a notice of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

22C. - (1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a General Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Association by or on behalf of that person.

(2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Association a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

(3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

23. Each and every full, honorary (unless those honorary members are for the time being included in the affiliate or corporate class of member) and past service member attending a General Meeting shall be entitled to one vote. Other classes of members shall only vote on such matters as determined by the meeting.

24. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote was objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

25. BRANCHES

25.1. The basic unit of organisation of the Association shall be the Branch. The areas in respect of which Branches may be formed shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Members at an Annual General Meeting.

25.2. The Association may in General Meeting approve the formation of a Branch for any area.

25.3. A full or corporate member of the Association shall be entitled only to be a member of the Branch within the area in which his employing organisation is situated, and in the case of past service, honorary and affiliate members, where they are resident, unless the Executive Director (Resources) at his discretion, otherwise determines in any individual case.

25.4. It shall be the prerogative of any Branch to organise as it thinks fit, save that:-

25.4.1. Each branch shall appoint members to act as Branch Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer; such officers must be full, honorary or past services members of the Association;

25.4.2. Officers of the Association shall be entitled to attend any Branch meeting and speak on any matter under discussion at the meeting. This right shall not be exercised at any Branch meeting (other than of their own Branch) held during the period of annual nomination and election of Deputy Chairman of the Association i.e. from close of nominations to close of poll;

25.4.3. No Branch shall be able to alter its boundaries;

25.4.4. The Board may, at its discretion, make arrangements to create, dissolve, merge or alter the boundaries of any Branch, save that:-

25.4.4.1.1. Any affected Branch(es) may appeal to a General Meeting; and 25.4.4.1.2. No Branch may be dissolved without its consent.

25.4.5. Branches shall refer any policy matters directly to the Board;

25.4.6. The Association shall have the power to control the activities of the Branches of the Association in order to promote the objects of the Association in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing by requiring the submission of a copy of the minutes of all Branch meetings; and 25.4.7. The boundaries of Branches are to be the boundaries of the constituent local authorities, and if an alteration is made to the boundary of a local authority then the boundary of the relevant Branch shall be altered accordingly. If an alteration to the boundary of a local authority is made which affects the boundary of more than one Branch, then the boundaries of the Branches affected shall be varied accordingly. In all cases, variations shall come into force on the same day as the local authority boundary changes become effective.

MANAGEMENT OF THE ASSOCIATION

26. The Board shall appoint a Management Team, comprising a chief executive and three executive directors. The Board shall have the power to alter the composition of the Management Team, as required, subject to consulting the membership of the Association before implementing any changes.
27. The Management Team shall report to the Board and shall, subject to any limitations placed upon it by the Board, be responsible for managing the business of the Association including appointing the necessary staff to enable the Association to fulfil its responsibilities.

CHAIRMAN, DEPUTY CHAIRMAN AND IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIRMAN

28. At each Annual General Meeting, the Association shall confirm the election of Deputy Chairman, who shall hold office until the date of the next Annual General Meeting. The Deputy Chairman shall automatically succeed the Chairman. No person may hold the office of Chairman for more than one year at a time. The Chairman's role shall be to represent the Association and he shall take the chair at all General Meetings of the Association and the Association's Board. On completion of his term of office, the Chairman shall then hold the office of Immediate Past Chairman of the Association for one year.
29. The Chairman, Deputy Chairman and Immediate Past Chairman shall be ex-officio members of the Management Team and full voting members of the Board.
30. An election for the post of Deputy Chairman shall be held by ballot of all members, and the Board shall make such rules as it thinks fit for the conduct of such election. Candidates for the post of Deputy Chairman shall be full, honorary (but not included for the time being in the corporate or affiliate class) or past service members of the Association. An unopposed candidate and a successful candidate following a ballot in accordance with this Article shall be deemed to have been elected by the Annual General Meeting upon the receipt of the Returning Officer's report. No person who holds a salaried post with the Association may hold the post of Deputy Chairman of the Association, or succeed to the post of Chairman, whilst they remain in a salaried post.
31. No person who is elected to the post of Deputy Chairman and subsequently loses the ability to claim full or past service membership, shall remain in office or be able to hold the post of Chairman or the post of Immediate Past Chairman. This provision will also apply to any honorary member who takes up employment with any commercial or affiliate organisation.
32. In the event that the Chairman vacates office prematurely, the Deputy Chairman shall immediately assume this role and an election called for the post of Deputy Chairman unless the vacancy occurs within three months of the next scheduled Annual General Meeting.
33. The Board may fill a casual vacancy, or any vacancy not filled by election.
34. In the event that the Immediate Past Chairman vacates their office before the end of their term, the Board may co-opt the previous Immediate Past Chairman or appoint a member of the Board who has previously served as Chairman of the Association to fill the vacancy.

LIFE PRESIDENTS AND VICE-PRESIDENTS

35. At each Annual General Meeting, the Association may appoint Life Presidents and Vice-Presidents.

THE BOARD

36.1 The Board shall consist of:

- (a) the members of the Management Team, as defined in Article 26 above;
- (b) the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and Immediate Past Chairman of the Association; and
- (c) the representatives of Branches of the Association, the number of which the Association shall determine from time to time.

36.2 The directors of the Association shall be:

- (a) the members of the Management Team;
- (b) the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and Immediate Past Chairman of the Association; and
- (c) the branch representatives on the Board.

37. Branches shall be responsible for selecting their representatives, subject to such representatives being full, honorary (but not included for the time being in the affiliate or corporate class) or past service members of the Association, and for forwarding the names and addresses of such representatives in writing to the Executive Director (Resources) at least seven days before the Annual General Meeting.

38. A Branch representative may by notice in writing to the Executive Director (Resources), and subject to the provisions of Article 40, appoint another Branch representative or any other member approved by the Board to act on his behalf at a meeting of the Board. Such substitute representatives may only vote on matters that do not relate to the Association's responsibilities under the Companies Acts and must be full, past service or honorary members, who do not belong to the affiliate or corporate class of member.

39. Any person appointed under the provisions of Article 38 shall not be entitled to appoint another person to act in his place, but in all other respects may exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of and shall be subject to all the provisions of the Articles relating to a member of the Board.

40. A person who is already a member of the Board in his own right may not be appointed under the provisions of Article 38.

41. Members of the Board shall hold office from the date on which they are appointed or elected in accordance with Article 36 until such date as the appointment ceases or term of office of an elected officer ends as the case may be or by virtue of the vacation of office for any other reason.

42. The quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be 50% of the total number of Board members. The Chairman of the Association shall preside at all meetings of the Board. In his absence, or should he decline to take the chair, the Deputy Chairman shall preside. In any other case, the Board shall choose one of their own number to preside.

43. Every question at a meeting of the Board shall be determined by a majority of those present and voting. Each member shall have one vote and, in the case of an equality of votes, the person presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.

44. The Board may hold such meetings and deal with such business as it thinks fit (subject to such constraints as are placed upon it by an Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting of the Association or the Articles). Subject to the provisions of the Articles and any rules made in relation to the conduct of the Association's business, the procedure at meetings shall be at the discretion of the person presiding.
45. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of the Board to any members of the Board who is for the time being absent from the United Kingdom.
46. Any member of the Association and such other persons as may be determined from time to time by the Board may attend meetings of the Board but shall not be permitted to exercise a vote and shall not speak unless by express permission of the Board.
47. Any or all members of the Board may be counted as present at any meeting of the Board or of any sub-committees of which they are a members and as part of the quorum if they are able, by means of a telephone or other communications equipment, to hear and participate in the proceedings of the meeting and to signify how they wish to cast their vote on any questions to be decided at the meeting.
48. A resolution in writing signed by all members for the time being of the Board or of any committee who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or of such committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or of such committee duly convened and constituted.

POWERS OF THE BOARD

49. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Memorandum and any directions given by special resolution, the Board shall have overall responsibility for managing the business of the Association. In accordance with Article 26, the Board shall appoint a Management Team to manage the business of the Association on its behalf, and shall, from time to time, prescribe the powers and duties of the Management Team.
50. The members for the time being of the Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; provided always that in case the members of the Board shall at any time be less than the number prescribed by or in accordance with the Articles as the quorum, it shall be lawful for them to act as the Board for the purpose of admitting persons to membership of the Association, filling up vacancies in their body, or of summoning a General Meeting, but not for any other purpose.
51. The Board may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of at least three members of the Association or to any Officer. Any such delegation may be made subject to any conditions the Board may impose, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered. Subject to any such conditions, the proceedings of a committee with two or more members shall be governed by the Articles regulating the proceedings of the Board as far as they are capable of applying.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

52. The office of a member of the Board shall be vacated if:-
 - 52.1. he becomes disqualified from acting as a member of the Board by virtue of any provision of the Act or any statutory re-enactment or modification thereof; or

- 52.2. he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally; or
- 52.3. he becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of administering his own affairs; or
- 52.4. he is for the time being detained in prison or is otherwise convicted of any offence which, in the opinion of other members of the Board, may bring the Association into disrepute; or
- 52.5. he resigns his office by notice to the Associations; or
- 52.6. he is removed from office of the Association or, by notification in writing to the Executive Director (Resources) from the Branch appointing him that he is removed as a Branch representative as the case may be; or
- 52.7. he ceases to be a member of the Association.

MINUTES

53. The Board shall cause minutes to be made of all proceedings at meetings of the Association, and of the Board and of committees, including the names of members of the Board or committee present at each meeting.

THE SEAL

54. The seal shall only be used by the authority of the Board or of a sub-committee authorised by the Board. The Board may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by a member of the Board and by the Executive Director (Resources) or by a second member of the Board.

ACCOUNTS

55. Accounts shall be prepared in accordance with Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 in accordance with the small companies regime.
56. Any bank account in which any part of the assets of the Association is deposited shall be operated by the Board and shall indicate the name of the Association. All cheques and orders for the payment of money from such account shall be signed in such manner as the Board shall from time to time determine.

MEANS OF COMMUNICATION TO BE USED

57. – (1) Subject to the articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents and information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company.
- (2) Subject to the articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such documents for the time being.
- (3) A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be determined to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

RULES

58. The Board may from time to time make such rules as they may deem necessary or expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Association and for the purposes of prescribing classes of and conditions of membership and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing they may by such rules or bye laws regulate:
- a) the admission and classification of members of the Association and the rights and privileges of such members and the conditions of membership and the terms on which members may resign or have their membership declined or terminated and the entrance fees subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members,
 - b) the conduct of members of the Association in relation to one another and to the Association's employees;
 - c) the procedure at General Meetings and meetings of the Board and committees in so far as such procedure is not regulated by the Articles;
 - d) financial procedures of the Association including procedures to be adopted and maintained by the Branches of the Association; and
 - e) generally all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.
59. The Board shall have power to alter add to or repeal the rules and shall adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Association all such rules which shall be binding on all members of the Association provided that no rule shall be inconsistent with or shall affect or repeal anything contained in the Memorandum or the Articles.

DISSOLUTION

60. Clauses 4 and 7 of the Memorandum of Association as set in the Schedule hereto and relating to the winding up or dissolution of the Association shall have effect and be observed as if the provisions thereof were repeated in these Articles.

INDEMNITY

61. – (1) Subject to paragraph (2), a relevant director of the company may be indemnified out of the company's assets against –
- a) any liability incurred by that director in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company or an associated company,
 - b) any liability incurred by that director in connection with the activities of the company or an associated company in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in Section 235(6) of the Companies Act 2006),
 - c) any other liability incurred by that director as an officer of the company or an associated company.
- (2). This article does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by and provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.
- (3). In this article, a "relevant director" means any director or former director of the company.

INSURANCE

62. – (1) The directors may decide to purchase and maintain insurance , at the expense of the company, for the benefit of any relevant director in respect of relevant loss.

(2). In this article –

- a) a “relevant director” means any director or former director of the company,
- b) a “relevant loss” means any loss or liability which has been or may be incurred by a relevant director in connection with that director’s duties or powers in relation to the company, any pension fund or employees’ share scheme of the company.

- (i) to do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them;

Provided that: -

- (i) in case the Association shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Association shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as allowed by law, having regard to such trusts;
- (ii) the Association shall not support with its funds any object, or endeavour to impose on or procure to be observed by its members or others any regulation, restriction or condition which if an object of the Association would make it a Trade Union;
- (iii) in case the Association shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales the Association shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority, approval or consent as may be required by law, and as regards any such property the Board of the Association shall be chargeable for any such property that may come into their hands and shall be answerable and accountable for their own acts, receipts, neglects and defaults, and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as they would as such Board have been if no incorporation had been effected, and the incorporation of the Association shall not diminish or impair any control or authority exercisable by the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice or the Charity Commissioners or the Secretary of State for Education and Science over such Board, but they shall as regards any such property be subject jointly and separately to such control or authority as if the Association were not incorporated.

4 The income and property of the Association shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in this Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to members of the Association.

Provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Association:-

- (a) of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member of the Association for any services rendered to the Association;
- (b) of interest at a rate per annum not exceeding two per cent less than the minimum rate presented for the time being by a clearing bank or 3 per cent whichever is the greater on money lent to the Association by any member of the Association (whether a member of the Board or not); or reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Association or of its Board;

- (c) to any member of its Board of out-of-pocket expenses;
- (d) to a company of which a member of the Board may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the capital of such company, and such member shall not be bound to account for any share of profits he may receive in respect of any such payment; provided further that neither the members of the Board nor any of them shall concur in exercising any voting rights in respect of any shares or debentures or other securities comprised in the assets of the Association in such a way that a personal benefit is thereby secured to such member or any of them.

- 5 The liability of the members is limited.
- 6 Every member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association, in the event of the same being wound up while he is a member, or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1.
- 7 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Association, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Association under or by virtue of clause 4 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provisions, then to some charitable object.
