

Two Day Elections 2021

Aim

To provide delegates with a comprehensive understanding of managing an election, including the legislative framework and good practice.

Objectives

1. To define the legal requirements that govern election administration and the duties of the different types of Returning Officer.
2. To outline the framework for both by-elections and scheduled polls, including timetables, nominations, poll cards and postal voting.
3. To consider other aspects of an election such as polling day organisation, the count and post-election procedures.
4. To explore good practice relating to all aspects of election management.

Skill level

This course is designed for people with a good knowledge of election administration, but who are looking for a more comprehensive understanding of processes and want to identify ways to improve service delivery. This course is also recommended as a revision tool for candidates studying for our Certificate in Electoral Administration.

Course overview

You will follow a comprehensive manual guiding you through all key aspects of election management.

The course will be delivered using a mixture of presentation material and practical exercises, with reference to example documentation and official guidance.

Group discussion will take place during each day to enable you to exchange knowledge, experience and ideas.

You will be provided with a course pack prior to arrival, containing notes, guidance documents and example materials. The course starts at 10:00 on day one, finishing at 4:00 on day two.
